Introduction to International Payment Systems

The courseware & its contents are at the best.

Excellent presentation skills, contents and relevance to job.

Training Material presented and Instructor articulations are good.

So, will recommend.

Excellent session by trainer. She covered the concepts excellently well.

Participants speak

The flow of information is really awesome, good articulation and sequential, able to clearly understand the function of different kind of payment / settlement systems and could co-relate the functional points.

Good examples and ppt slides.

Useful training, Thanks and Hats-off to trainer.

The financial sector is increasingly moving towards payment and settlement systems over conventional Loans and deposits sector. Hence such a course having an overview of different types of payment and settlements systems is very relevant and crucial.

It is useful to enhance our functional skills.
